

KENAS RELATIONSHIPS IN MOITC

Note:

- The bodies indicated in yellow do perform conformity assessment activities which KENAS performs accreditation assessments on. The risks associated with the two bodies having the same reporting relationship with KENAS have been identified and are captured in the KENAS risk register. KENAS, KEBS and KIRDI have different boards and there has been no interference with the Ministry with regards to KENAS decision making process.
- The Standards Tribunal according to the Legal notice is the body tasked with the handling of appeals on decisions taken by KENAS with regards to accreditation. This body is established under the Standards Act. The body is in transition to the Judiciary
